

MRW thanks Law Enforcement agencies

On January 9, 2022 - Law Enforcement Appreciation Day - Moore Republican Women honored the sacrifices of law enforcement personnel and their families.

As a small token of our gratitude, MRW collected goodies and snacks at our January brunch, wrote "thank you" notes, and then prepared goodie baskets to be distributed to the many law enforcement agencies that serve Moore County, including:

Aberdeen Police Department, Carthage Police Department, Foxfire Police Department, Moore County Sheriff's Office, Moore County Sheriff's Office, Animal Control, North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, North Carolina Alcohol Law Enforcement, North Carolina Department of Insurance, North Carolina State Highway Patrol, Pinebluff Police Department, Pinehurst Police Department, Robbins Police Department, Southern Pines Police Department, Taylortown Police Department, Vass Police Department, Whispering Pines Police Department and the Wildlife Resource Commission.

We are grateful to those who serve to make our community a safer place.

Highlights from the January brunch

Because our previous meeting site at Country Club of North Carolina is being renovated, we are now holding our meetings at the Lighthouse at Little River. The year got off to a great start, with delicious food, spacious facilities, and useful content.

We welcomed a number of guest speakers - all of them candidates for election in November 2022. The primary will take place in May. The speakers were:

U.S. Senate: Mark Walker

NC State Senate: Tom McInnis

U.S. Senate: Marjorie Eastman

NC House, District 78: Nick Picerno

District Court Judge: Beth Tanner

John Ritter, Moore County
Commissioner

School Board candidates: Pauline Bruno, Ken Benway, Shannon Davis.

William "Bill" Britton, Register of Deeds

Moore County Sheriff: Ronnie Fields

District Court Judge: Warren McSweeney

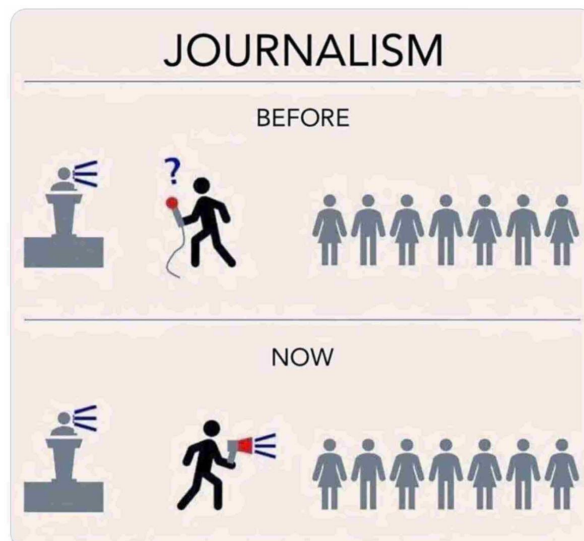

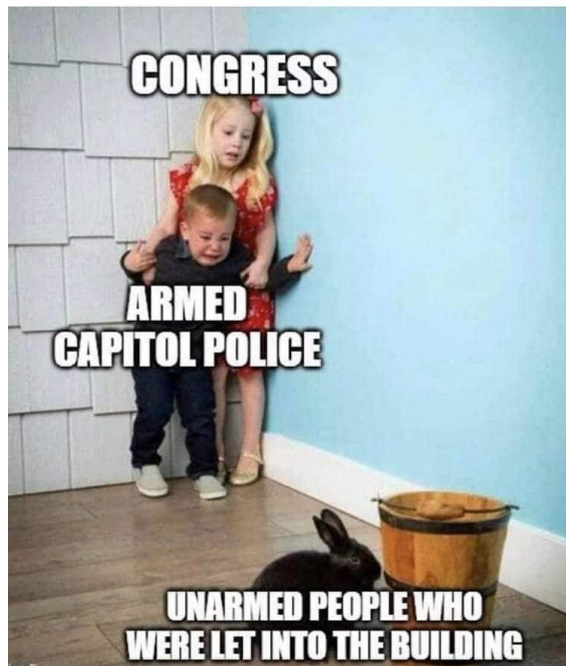

Todd Maness, Clerk of Court
